

Write the complete address in plain block letters in the space below, and your return address in the space provided. Use pen, ball pen, or pencil. Write plainly. Very small writing is not suitable.

(KEROSENE STAMP)

Mr. Charles E. Loops, Jr.
907 Chester Ave.
Lynchburg, Virginia
U.S.A.

Mr. Frank W. Loops, 0-662527
(Sender's name)

432 S. 17th St. Bk. Co.
(Sender's address)

A.P.O. 520, N.Y. 10011, N.Y.C.

August 21, 1943
(Date)

Hello Frank -

Been meaning to get around to writing you all, but due to the heat, my not picking up to snuff, and mainly my not being able to think of any disparaging remarks about the State of Georgia, I just haven't gotten around to it! - But in the meantime, with Brother traveling and seeing so much of the State, am sure he has some choice tidbits to tell!

Melba, how do you like living in a city again, with mail service right to your gate? - Pretty nice, eh? - That thing you know you'll not be satisfied with going to the back yard - when - I forget, that's part of your life! You should see some of our super clerical jobs! - That's why was a fellow -

Georgia, that Melba can live with Melba & Janet now that the big has had to be away so much. And I know living in Virginia is so much better than Georgia for her! - Am glad, too, that Janet is getting the chance to grow up in a good state! - Say, Melba, don't worry about all these hard luck stories Brother has to tell about his traveling and not eating on account of schedules & stuff. - From all I've been able to gather it's a blessing he can be away from the table for awhile. - Especially with clothing material getting more scarce all the time.

Frank, I don't mean half of these things I've said except about Georgia. - I'm awfully glad Brother has gotten his break at last. He's on the road a lot now. - one of these days hit right and you will be so much better off! - Personally, I'm better off when his traveling since it seems at night when he has nothing to do - for me pretty often!

Well, Frank!

MAIL

Bye for now & Love,
Frank

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT PERMIT NO. 12